 MICHAEL MILNE, M.D.		physicians DIREC+ORY <hr/> DR. MICHAEL MILNE Whether you're a weekend warrior or a competitive athlete, knee and shoulder injuries can stop you in your tracks. Dr. Michael Milne, a board-certified orthopedic surgeon, can help. Milne trained in one of the nation's most prestigious post-doctoral sports medicine fellowship programs where he specialized in knee and shoulder surgery. Having practiced in St. Louis since 2003, Dr. Milne primarily performs arthroscopic surgical procedures designed to treat common injuries, such as rotator cuff tears, ACL injuries and meniscus tears. He serves as the team physician for several area athletic programs, and was affiliated with the Denver Broncos, the Colorado Rockies and the U.S. Ski Team during his fellowship at the Steadman-Hawkins Clinic in Vail, Colo. Milne also treats patients who suffer from arthritis, work-related injuries and carpal tunnel syndrome. "I'm a St. Louis native, so I'm really very pleased to bring the world-class knowledge and training back home," he says. "My goal is always to provide the best treatment to help patients get back to doing what they love to do as quickly as possible."
